

We love top performers!
You as well?

kratzer
AUTOMATION

Top technology | Top performance | Top team

KRATZER AUTOMATION is an innovative high-tech company for industrial applications.

Our software solutions provide efficient and transparent processes for our demanding, international customers in the automotive industry and the transport sector.

With more than 300 employees at 9 locations in 6 countries, we generate an annual turnover of EUR 61 million.

For further information:

- To our Logistics Automation business unit
- What distinguishes us from other employers
- Good reasons to join us
- History of our Company
- Corporate Social Responsibility

Business Analyst (m/f) for operational Transport Management System

Location: Unterschleißheim near Munich

cadis TMS software by KRATZER AUTOMATION is designed to support all daily operational tasks within logistics organization. The operational Transport Management System organizes supply chain in a more efficient way and covers planning and optimization, execution and control, monitoring and analysis. Documentation of all the process steps completes the range of functionality found within the TMS software.

Your future tasks:

- Capture and document our transport logistics customer's demands
- Work out customized solutions
- Moderate customer workshops
- Customer service
- Consult internal service providers

Skills and experience required:

- University degree (B. Sc.) in information technology, logistics or comparable, alternatively vocational training in logistics
- Proven track of at least five years in similar position
- Excellent knowledge of transport management systems in the field of freight forwarding
- Basic knowledge of software design / architecture advantageous
- Either very good German and English skills or very good French and English skills
- Willingness to travel
- High degree of self-responsibility, analytical thinking and flexibility
- Team player with distinctive communication and cooperation behavior as well as high intercultural competence

In return, we offer:

You can look forward to a versatile field of activity and a professional, dedicated team. We will familiarize you thoroughly with your area of responsibility and offer you excellent design options.

As an owner-managed family company, our employees are our top priority. Our working environment is characterized by open and fair communication, short decision-making paths and a flat hierarchy. We offer you a performance-related salary and good prospects. You will benefit through profit-sharing directly from the success of the business unit. Additionally we will offer an attractive benefit package.

Would you like to contribute to the continuing success story of KRATZER AUTOMATION as well? Fantastic!
Please send your detailed resume stating your earliest possible start date to the e-mail address below.
For additional information, please feel free to contact us.

We look forward to meeting you!